Factual Background

5. In or about August of 2022, Eric Williams, a resident of McCalla, in the Northern District of Alabama, was under investigation by the Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA) and partnering law enforcement. Williams was suspected of receiving cocaine from a source in Mexico, and distributing it in Birmingham, Alabama; Montgomery, Alabama; Atlanta, Georgia; and Spartanburg, South Carolina.

6. On August 10, 2022, Williams was observed traveling from Birmingham to Union City, Georgia, where he stayed overnight at a hotel. On August 11, 2022, law enforcement observed Williams' vehicle, a Ford Explorer, exit the hotel grounds and begin traveling north on I-85 towards downtown Atlanta, Georgia.

7. Surveillance of Williams revealed he continued to travel north through Atlanta, ending in Spartanburg. Law enforcement in Spartanburg observed the vehicle parked in front of a trailer. Williams and two Hispanic males were present. When approached by law enforcement, one of the Hispanic males stated they were all waiting for a truck to arrive to load and transport the trailer. Following a positive hit by a drug-sniffing K-9, Williams and the accompanying individuals were detained while Williams' vehicle and the trailer were searched.

8. During the search of Williams' Ford Explorer, law enforcement identified a hidden compartment under both the driver's seat and front passenger but no drugs inside of the vehicle. A search of the trailer yielded 7 kilograms of cocaine in a plastic bag placed between pallets of expired fruit. Williams and two other individuals were arrested for possession of cocaine on August 11, 2022.

9. On August 12, 2022, law enforcement observed Williams' second vehicle, a Dodge Challenger, leave Birmingham, Alabama, and travel to same hotel in Union City, Georgia, where Williams previously stayed. The vehicle returned to Birmingham later that same day.

10. In recorded jail phone calls beginning on August 12, 2022, Williams called his girlfriend, Melanie Benjamin, and asked if she had acquired the money from his hotel room in Union City, Georgia. Benjamin verified that she had done so. Williams also instructed Benjamin to remove weapons and currency from his residence in McCalla. Benjamin also replied that she had done so.

11. Following Williams' arrest, on August 13, 2022, law enforcement executed a state search warrant at his residence in McCalla, AL, that resulted in the seizure of 6 guns, 18 cellphones, jewelry, and approximately 1176.9 grams of an unknown substance.

12. Also on August 13, 2022, Melanie Benjamin, known to law enforcement to be Williams' girlfriend, was under surveillance. At the time of this surveillance, she was operating a Dodge Challenger that belonged to Williams.

13. Law enforcement observed Benjamin exit the Dodge Challenger at an address on Bessemer Road in Birmingham and enter a Nissan Rogue with two other females and begin traveling in the Rogue. A lawful traffic stop of the Rogue was conducted where all occupants gave permission for a consensual search of the vehicle. Law enforcement found $4,790.00 of United States Currency in Benjamin's purse inside the Rogue.

14. In a subsequent interview with law enforcement, Benjamin gave permission for officers to search the Dodge Challenger which she had been driving. A backpack with $19,169.00 in United States Currency was found in the trunk of the Challenger.

15. A shoebox with Various Jewelry was also found in the trunk of the Challenger. This includes three items, which were appraised by an expert and described as:

Description	Approximate Value
10K Yellow Gold Diamond Ring, 168 single cut diamonds, estimated total 0.84 carats.	$1,386.00
